BULLETIN 7 – 13 March 2010

IS SOBRIETY ENOUGH?:

“We ask ourselves what we mean when we say that we have harmed other people. What kinds of “harm” do people do to one another, anyway? To define the word “harm” in a practical way, we might call it the result of instructs in collision, which cause physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual damage to those about us.”

AND A FINAL THOUGHT:

How can you tell the difference between a sponsor and a therapist?

The only time a sponsor uses the word “closure” is before the word “mouth”.
